Abstract.

There is talk of respecting women and ensuring the well-being of society. In general, the attention paid to women in the Republic of Uzbekistan in recent years speaks of reforms in this area.

Keywords: woman, reforms, image of mother, social development.

Respect for women is one of the noble features of the Uzbek people. In this sense, Uzbekistan is carrying out historic work of national importance to strengthen the role and status of women in society. Indeed, the stability and development of the political, socio-spiritual environment in society depends on the attitude and attention to women, youth, family.

Highly appreciating the role and place of women in society, the President praised the protection of their rights and interests, creating the necessary conditions for women to become educated, modern professionals, skilled professionals and build a healthy and strong family, first of all, the birth and upbringing of healthy children, mothers and emphasizes that the protection of children's health is a top priority of our state and society. It is well known that the role and influence of the family, and of the woman in the family, is unparalleled in the formation and upliftment of the nation's unique spirituality. Because the purest and purest feelings of man, the first vital concepts and imaginations are formed first of all in the heart of the family and in the upbringing of the mother. In our country, the role of women in society, their relationship to the family, their role in social life is very important, and their status is highly valued in all respects.

In our country, which is confidently moving towards building a state governed by the rule of law and a democratic society, a national legal system has been created to ensure women's equality with men in all areas, to honor and respect them, to protect their legitimate rights and interests. During the years of independence, our Constitution and the Labor Code of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Family Code, Civil Code, Criminal Code, "On Social Protection of Persons with Disabilities in the Republic of Uzbekistan", "On Youth Policy in the Republic of Uzbekistan", "On Employment", "On Labor Protection" The main purpose of the laws "On state pensions", "On protection of public health", "On education", "On additional benefits for women" and other normative legal acts is to protect the rights and interests of women in our country. aimed at increasing the activity of our sisters, providing them with spiritual support, as well as protecting them from various threats and stereotypes. It should be noted that all legislation aimed at protecting the rights and interests of our women is based on international legal norms.

The Republic of Uzbekistan was one of the first in Central Asia to accede to the International Conventions on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), on the political rights of women and on the protection of motherhood in order to ensure that women's rights comply with international norms and legal standards. In accordance with the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated March 2, 1995 "On measures to enhance the role of women in state and society building", the active participation of women in the formation of a healthy environment in society has been strengthened. Chairmen of women's committees in the Republic of Karakalpakstan, regions and the city of Tashkent, as well as districts, have been included in local authorities. They were appointed local deputy governors. The chairwoman of the Republican Women's Committee has been appointed Deputy Prime Minister.

Revealing the potential of women in society, strengthening their role in educating a harmoniously developed generation and ensuring more active participation in our ongoing comprehensive reforms has become one of the priorities of our state policy. In particular, the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated May 25, 2004 "On additional measures to support the activities of the Women's Committee of Uzbekistan" opened a new era in the socio-political life of women, created new opportunities for further development of women's activism. identified ways to demonstrate women's potential. In particular, the introduction of a 30% quota for women candidates from political parties in accordance with the Law "On Elections to the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan" in 2004 opened new opportunities for increasing the socio-political activity of women in our country. In order to increase the participation of women in state building in our society, the role of women in the activities of political parties has been strengthened, a certain number of party members are women, and "Women's Wings" have been established under all political parties in the country. Today kunda our country of the parliament Legislation in the chamber wife n- girls 22 per cent , in the Senate while 15 percent formed reaches _ In 2000 this number only 8.2 percent not exceed was . In 2007 become past The presidency in the election in our country for the first time in Uzbekistan Republic Presidents to the post shown a how much candidate in a row woman one's both candidate shown and for the first time in Uzbekistan Republic High Of the Assembly Legislation palatasi Speakers to the post a woman was elected .
