Annotation: the article deals with the main characteristics of writing in teaching foreign languages. In order to give brief information about the main characteristics of writing for social action and in order to recapitulate the main factors of writing in social action here is given Max Weber's assumption and analyses.

Key words: writing, teaching, traditional type , affective type, rationalistic type, evaluation type, editing, composing.

According to Max Weber, human are performing any time any motion in reference of their need. Max Weber considered an important unit of actors in enhancing of social actions. When an actor performs any type of work then it is action. For this, it is integral that it have vested the personal activity of actors at the time of actions. By which many humans are affected or get some sense.

Max Weber provides extra significance to social action in the structure of challenge find out about of sociology. The important work of sociology is the accurate research of sociological actions so the effect of their action or result can present explanation with reason. According to Max Weber the motion is social motion solely every time that moves are affected with the aid of the behavior of different sociological creature and in accordance to them determined their activity.

The name of Max Weber is most important in sociologist to imparting the positive aspect for sociology. The primary intention of Weber used to be rendering the principle of sociology. He generates the precept of social motion for pleasant these objectives. He writes to provide an explanation for the sociology that "sociology is that science which tries to function the explanatory experience of sociological actions, so their aspect and end result of causation relation can clarify."

If we deliberated the above definition of sociology by using Max Weber then these can be describe one of a kind type of specialties.

a. Social Action

b. Interpretation of Social Action

c. Causal relationship of path and outcomes of Social Action

To clear the above interpretation Weber writes that motion can be say social action in which actor changed their motion to think about the others action. In brief, it referred to as social action.

B. Characteristics of Social Action:

Max Weber tells those specialties of social action which can briefly divided in following parts:

1. Only motion cannot say sociological action. According to Weber an exercise can solely be referred to as social activity in which the action is affected by others people of society. That affect can be three types:

a. Social action are affected by the action of past. In other words the seed of today's action is hidden in past.

b. Social action could also being the result of today's behaviour.

c. Social action has future based result so people perform any action today their affect can find in the future life.

2. As written above that the action of single person cannot say sociological action. The only activity can be called social activities, which are affected from others. So in brief, other person is necessary for sociological action. In the reference of other people, social action is transacting.

3. The third specialty of social action is that it is perform affected with others. When person performs action affected the behaviors of other.

4. Sociological activities are inter-related. Weber says social action only those action in which actions are affecting to other person

C. Types of Social Action:

Social action is more important in sociological viewpoint of Weber. Social action is the subject matter of sociology. Max Weber describes the level of sociological action. These different level and type describe the sociological behaviour of human of sociological action. Max Weber divided in following four parts the main type of sociological action:

1. Traditional Type: These actions are performing by social heritage. Weber says that sociological actions of human are related to tradition and custom in society. Human edits these things because it is continuing from classic and the part of social heritage of human. Every society has some tradition and customs. The control of every society is so hard so we follow the action if we do not want. Example – The tradition of cremation of Hindu are full of different ritualistic. Person is editing these ritualistic if they do not want.

2. Affective Type or Emotional Type: Aristotle says that human is a sociological creature, it is correct, but-as well as human is also a feeling based creature. Human does not do work always with logic and discretion. He is continue dip in emotion and operated from different type of emotion. He has the feeling of work, anger, fascination, fear, jealousy. When social action performs affected with these emotions of human then it is known as the emotional type of sociological action. These action are not understand by tradition and values or logic and rational, but these actions are understand by emotion. A cruel person is also emotional to sew the hungry boy and turn their action in to kindness. It is emotion that many people is weeping to see the one weeping person.

3. Evaluation Type: The third type of social action of Max Weber is evaluation. These types of sociological actions are related to values. Every society has some certain value and criteria. On the bases of these value and criteria, understand the group. Every society secures their values and criteria. These evaluation actions are come from ancient and continuing in future. These action have own values in society which is not understand by logic and rational. The value of married women is to fill the vermilion. The sociological value is to touch the foot of elders by which person are directed.

4. Rationalistic type: The fourth and last type of social action of Max Weber is rationalistic. When any work are performing with planning from rational and logic and involved in this means and end than these action are known as rationalistic sociological action. Rationalistic actions are more important in comparison to other action. Those actions of human are calls rationalistic actions, which operated on the bases of means and end. When we performed any work then clearly describe the source for find the aim of that work. There is only one aim to editing the arrangement of sociological actions. By this human fulfilling their need. These types of sociological actions are full of logic and scientific.
